- any other companies that belong to MATADOR GROUP.

Order - Order of the Goods made by Buyer and addressed to Supplier, which includes amounts and/or volumes of ordered Goods, Prices, delivery terms, maturity terms and other conditions determined by Buyer. Order shall also include a reference to GPC with GPC's effective date.

OZ - Act No. 40/1964 Coll. the Civil Code as amended, effective and forceful on the territory of the Slovak Republic.

Offer - Written offer of the Goods by Supplier for Buyer, carried out based on a written or verbal demand by Buyer, and which includes mostly the specification, quality, amount and price for the Goods, payment and delivery conditions, and the offer shall be valid as of the day of its issuance.

Contracting party, Contracting parties - Contracting parties (Buyer, Supplier) of the contractual relationship under the Contract.

Technical background documents - Any technical background documents, data, drawings, templates, models, matrices, samples, designs or any other information regardless of its character, form or nature provided by Buyer to Supplier in order to produce and or supply the Goods or Instruments or provided by him for Supplier on Buyer's costs.

Goods - Goods or services ordered by Buyer at Supplier's. Provision and delivery of services shall be also deemed Goods production.

GPC - These General Purchase Conditions. GPC are issued as other business conditions in compliance with provision 273 Paragraph 1 of OBZ. GPC form an inseparable part of the Contract and Order regardless of the fact if attached thereto. GPC shall be binding regardless of the fact if signed by Contracting parties. General Technical Purchasing Conditions for Producing Presses and Precautionary Principles of Connecting Devices to LAN MATADOR together with their annexes are both part of this GPC.

Force majeure - Any natural force or event which is not ruled or controlled by people, strike, war, uprisings, civil disorder, measures taken by public authorities including laws, other generally binding legal regulations and general rules, and any other material events which occur independently of Contracting parties' will. Primary or secondary insolvency shall not be considered Force majeure.

Contract - Contract that stipulates the contractual relationship between Buyer and Supplier, whose subject matter shall be regular supply and /or lump-sum supply of Goods by Supplier to Buyer. Contract also includes any separate Quality contracts or another contractual document which regulates quality requirements of production and/or delivery of Goods which is concluded or agreed by parties. In case that the Contracting parties have not concluded any Contract in written form or have not concluded any general contract, the Contract shall be deemed the actual Order accepted in compliance with GPC, together with the Dispatch note, whereas the Contract shall, in such a case, originate upon the moment of accepting the Order as per paragraph 2.2. GPC form an inseparable part of the Contract. Divergent provisions of Contract shall prevail over GPC if approved in writing by both Contracting parties in the same document, which holds signatures of authorized representatives of the Contracting parties.

ZMPS - Act No. 97/1963 Coll. on international private and process law, as amended, effective and forceful on the territory of the Slovak Republic.

- 1.2 Unless stated differently in the Contract or GPC or unless Contracting parties agree otherwise, (i) any reference to a provision, legal regulation, GPC or Contract shall be deemed as reference to its amended version, including all previous changes amendments and annexes, (ii) any reference to a legal regulation shall be deemed as reference to Slovak legal regulation, (iii) any reference to an article, paragraph, point or annex shall be reference to article, paragraph, point or annex of GPC.

2 Ordering the Goods

2.1 Offer

Supplier shall submit the Offer within two (2) days after Buyer's demand. The Offer shall become binding for Supplier at the moment of its submission to Buyer. Unless explicitly stated otherwise in the Offer, upon issuance of the Offer for Buyer, the Supplier shall accept GPC valid on the day of offer submission to the Buyer. Offer shall be deemed accepted when confirmed fully by Buyer's Order. Provisions of the Offer which are in defiance of GPC shall not be taken into consideration, unless explicitly accepted in Order by Buyer.

In case that the Buyer carries out an act directed to selection of Supplier (nomination, nomination letter, and alike) prior to Order, such act shall not be considered by Buyer as accepting the Offer, it shall not be binding for Buyer, and Buyer shall be entitled to amend or cancel such act any time.

Each Supplier from the countries outside of the European Union, between which and the European Union the Free Trade Agreement or other agreement, which provides the possibility to release the Goods imported by the Supplier to the Buyer from the import customs duties or preferential decreasing of the import customs duties, is concluded, shall provide the statute of the approved exporter and prove the granting of such statute to the Buyer by sending the final decision of the competent customs or other agency of his country granting this statute with the official translation to the Slovak or English language.

2.2 Order issuance

Buyer shall issue Orders on his own forms, which he sends to Supplier in writing or by electronic system used between the Contracting parties. Written Orders shall be signed by Buyer or a respective authorized employee of Buyer. To deliver the Order, it is sufficient to send it via fax or register it in the electronic system used by Contracting parties.

Order also includes the Price agreed between Buyer and Supplier. In case that Buyer and Supplier have not agreed upon Price prior to sending the Order, the Price stated in Order shall be deemed quotation. Price shall also include production and travel costs for Goods supply, costs of observance of GPC and any Buyer's terms, principles and regulations, and any fees and remuneration for usage of any licences and sub-licences to intellectual and industrial property rights used for Goods production.

Conditions of INCOTERMS 2010 shall be valid for commercial clauses.

2.3 Order acceptance

If Supplier agrees with Order, he shall accept it by Order receipt confirmation. Acceptance shall be carried out by written confirmation of receipt and acceptance of Order by Supplier or a respective authorized employee, which shall be delivered to Buyer. In case that Supplier does not accept the Order within three (3) days after its sending, the Order shall automatically lapse.

In case that the Order is delivered by means of electronic system used between the Contracting parties, the Order shall be deemed received at the moment of its registration in the system on Supplier's side. Order delivered by means of electronic system used between the Contracting parties shall be considered as accepted in the moment of its acceptance in the electronic system by means of a respective element or functionality of electronic system.

In case that there is a Contract concluded between Buyer and Supplier which stipulates the relationships between the Contracting parties, or the Supplier expresses his agreement with these GPC in advance by other means, Supplier shall be entitled to refuse accepting the Order or object to a concrete Order solely due to Force majeure reasons. Any other reason for refusal of Order acceptance or demurs against Order shall be invalid and shall not result in non-acceptance and non-commitment of Order. Objections against Order shall be reasoned and delivered to Buyer in writing by post or fax, and shall be signed by Supplier or a respective authorized employee of Supplier. Unless Supplier raises qualified objections against Order in writing in compliance with this paragraph 2.2 within three (3) days after its receipt, the Order shall be considered automatically accepted after this period has lapsed.

Upon accepting the Order, Supplier shall also (i) accept these GPC, and at the same time declare and confirm that (ii) he is the holder of all Authorizations, which are necessary or required according the Contract, requests of the final customers and/or relevant laws for the execution of the delivery based on the Order, and that (iii) he will obey to and perform all conditions, covenants and duties according to the Order, Contract, GPC, all of their parts and annexes at his own costs and that (iv) he will observe and fulfill all his duties according to the general regulations governing the safety and protection of health in work, protection of environment, protection against fire, waste disposal and other relevant protection and other laws including technical and STN and including Buyer's internal regulations (internal regulations only if Goods are produced in and/or supplied to the Buyer's premises) and all of this at Supplier's own costs,

2.4 Changes and amendments of Order

Buyer shall be entitled to additionally change Orders, including the ordered amounts of Goods, changes of construction and production of the Goods, and alike. Changes and amendments of Order shall be delivered in the same way like Order and they must state which Order they relate to.

Changes and amendments of Order shall be binding for Supplier. In case that the Price is increased or decreased as a result of changes and amendments in the Order, the Contracting parties shall agree upon a new Price that considers the changes and amendments of the Order. In case that the Contracting parties do not come to an agreement on the new Price which would consider changes and amendments to the Order, the original Order shall be binding and Buyer shall be entitled to terminate the Contract.

In case that the changes and amendments to the Order are delivered prior to accepting the original wording of the Order, Supplier shall accept the Order automatically, including its changes and amendments delivered prior to Order acceptance by means of accepting the original wording of the Order or any change or amendment of this Order.

2.5 Buyer shall be entitled to cancel the Order within seven (7) days after its receipt by Supplier regardless of the fact if Supplier accepted the Order within this period.

2.6 Buyer may send to Supplier some perspectives or forecasts of Order development for longer time period stated by the Buyer or agreed upon with Supplier. Perspectives or forecasts of Order development help Supplier adapt the capacities and production. Perspectives or forecasts of Order development shall not be binding for Contracting parties and there are no rights or entitlements resulting from their non-compliance for Supplier. It is possible to deliver the perspectives or forecasts of Order development electronically, by fax or other means common between the Contracting parties, mostly through electronic systems.

3 Goods production and requirements on quality

3.1 Upon production and supply of the Goods, Supplier shall be bound by Buyer's instructions. Buyer may instruct the Supplier also by electronic mail or via fax. Upon production and supply of the Goods, Supplier shall be bound by Buyer's Technical background documents and shall produce the Goods exclusively by Instruments, if provided in accordance with their definition.

3.2 Supplier shall be obliged to supply the Buyer with the Goods duly, completely, in the agreed amount, quality and periods stated in the accepted Order and without any shortcomings, including legal ones. The Goods delivered shall not be burdened by any third party rights or rights established in favour of third parties, including liens and other collateral powers.

3.3 The Goods shall be constructed according to the state-of-the-art scientific and technological advances in the given field and quality, which is at least on the level of competition in the given field. In case that Supplier diverts from this state and level, he shall be obliged to inform Buyer in writing without any delay, including reasons and causes of such divergence and take all the steps directed to reach such state and level.

3.4 Supplier shall be obliged to construct the Goods in compliance with legal regulations, GPC and all of its parts and annexes, Contract, technical and quality parameters and standards and norms for quality assurance determined by Buyer as well as all regulations stipulated in the last paragraph of the clause 2.3. Supplier shall be obliged to enable Buyer to inspect compliance with Buyer's instructions, Technical background documents, legal regulations, GPC, Contract, standards and quality regulations and other liabilities, including inspection of equipment for production and inspection, production premises, background documents and any documentation.

3.5 Supplier shall be obliged to place any marking, signs or symbols on the Goods as per Buyer's instructions, Order or Technical background documents. Supplier shall mark the Goods (each package) by VDA4902 label, which shall include mostly (i) code and description of the Goods as per Buyer's requirements, Order, plan of supplies and/or reference, (ii) amount of the Goods in a package (net and gross amount, number of pieces), and shall enable (iii) back identification of the Goods, (iv) the Goods to be attached to accompanying documentation (dispatch note, invoice, material test certificate, safety letter and other), and (v) shall identify Supplier and originator of the Goods.

3.6 Upon Buyer's request, Supplier shall be obliged to allow Buyer to enter the production premises in order to inspect the production quality compliance of the Goods, technical parameters of production and alike. Such inspection may be carried out only in working days from 08:00 to 16:00hrs.

3.7 Quality management systems in compliance with international standards TS, VDA, QS and ISO shall serve as a basis for assessment and stating the required scope of measures and documentation for provision of quality.

4 Supply of Goods

4.1 Supplier shall supply the Goods as per Buyer's instruction and each supply of Goods shall include Dispatch note, Invoice, packing list, material atest and other documents, including accessories of the Goods (manuals in Slovak or Czech language and alike). In case that supply of the Goods does not include any of the documents mentioned, mainly the document proving the origin of the Goods, the Goods shall not be deemed as supplied duly, fully and without any shortcomings. Upon handover and takeover of the duly supplied Goods, Contracting parties shall sign a Dispatch note.

- 4.2 Dispatch note shall include (i) number of Dispatch note, (ii) identification of Contracting parties (business name, registered office, Company registration No., registration in Companies register), (iii) identification of persons handing and taking over the Goods on behalf of Contracting parties, (iv) identification of the Goods (name, number / entry nomenclature at Buyer and Supplier, number of purchase document (Order, plan of supplies or reference), gross and net amount, measurement unit, unit and total price, number and type of pallets), whereas the entries with one nomenclature shall be stated on the Dispatch note only once in accumulated amount with marking the amount, (v) assessment of trial operation and the measured values if carried out, (vi) stating the shortcomings and faults which can be found out at regular inspection, if Buyer takes the Goods also with shortcomings, and (vii) description of person, which participated on behalf of Contracting parties in handing and taking over of the Goods.
- 4.3 In case of Goods supply from any country out of the European Union, Supplier shall be obliged to submit a statement of originality, in addition to the Dispatch note, issued in compliance with legal regulations of the European Union.
- 4.4 Every supply of Goods shall be due, full, on time and without any faults. Taking over the Goods with shortcomings shall not prevent Supplier from his obligation to remove the shortcomings at his costs.
- 4.5 Supplier shall not be entitled to retain any Instruments, Technical background documents or Goods, regardless the cause of such retaining.
- 4.6 Supplier from the country outside of the European Union, between which and the European Union the Free Trade Agreement or other agreement, which provides the possibility to release the Goods imported by the Supplier to the Buyer from the import customs duties or preferential decreasing of the import customs duties, is concluded, and which has granted the statute of the approved exporter shall deliver to the Buyer together with the Goods the Declaration of the Origin of the Goods, which shall include (i) reference to the relevant customs document, list of the imported Goods with their specifications according to the Order, (ii) declaration, that the Goods has a preferential origin in the Suppliers country, and (iii) other essentials required by the Law.

5 Price and payment conditions

- 5.1 Contracting parties shall agree upon Price for delivered Goods separately. Price may be amended solely upon written agreement between Contracting parties.

Taxes shall be charged together with the Price according to the relevant regulations. If competent authorities will ask the Buyer to pay Taxes, in particular value added tax, which should be otherwise paid by the Supplier, the claim to reimburse such paid Taxes will arise to the Buyer against the Supplier including their accessories.

- 5.2 Supplier shall be entitled to invoice Price only for Goods supplied duly and on time. Invoice shall include (i) all necessities of a tax and accounting document as per respective legal regulations of Buyer's state and concurrently of Supplier's state if Supplier is not Slovak entity, (ii) identification of the Goods (name, number / entry nomenclature at Buyer and Supplier, number of purchase document (Order, plan of supplies or reference), gross and net amount, measurement unit, unit and total price, number and type of pallets and correct numeral code of the Goods according to the Common Customs Tariff), whereas the entries with one nomenclature shall be stated on the Dispatch note only once in accumulated amount with marking the amount, and (iii) complete and correct data on bank contact, including business name of the bank, account number, including IBAN and SWIFT bank code; otherwise Buyer is not liable for delay of Price payment, nor for any damage or shortcomings caused due to non-settlement of Price or its late payment relating to incomplete data as per this paragraph.

In case that Invoice is not duly issued in compliance with legal regulations and/or GPC or any data or information required by the law or GPC is missing Buyer shall be entitled to return the Invoice to Supplier for remake. Period for payment shall not run up to the time of a new, duly issued Invoice and starts running again upon the moment of the duly issued Invoice receipt.

- 5.3 Price shall be invoiced in Euro currency. If the Price is agreed in a different currency, the exchange rate of the European Central Bank valid on the day of sending the Order by Buyer to Supplier shall be used to calculate the Price from another currency to Euro.
- 5.4 Maturity period is agreed in Contract. If not agreed in Contract, maturity period shall be as follows: (i) in case that the supply of Goods to Buyer duly took place in the course of the first half of the respective month (hereinafter referred to as the "Month of delivery") the maturity period shall lapse on the first day of the third month following the Month of delivery (i.e. if, for instance, the Goods were duly supplied to the Buyer on 14 March, the maturity period shall lapse on 1 June) and (ii) in case that the supply of Goods to Buyer duly took place in the course of the second half of the Month of delivery the maturity period shall lapse on the fifteenth day of the third month following the Month of delivery (i.e. if, for instance, the Goods were supplied to the Buyer on 28 March, the maturity period shall lapse on 15 June). Supplier shall send the Invoice to Buyer at least ten (10) days prior to its maturity date, otherwise the maturity date is prolonged by the period of delay of Invoice receipt.

- 5.5 Price shall be payable by direct debit transfer to Supplier's account. Price shall be deemed paid on the day of remitting the Price to Supplier's account by Buyer's bank. Bank charges connected with the transfer shall be borne by each Contracting party to their bank at own costs.

- 5.6 Buyer shall be entitled to unilaterally amend the Prices every year as at 1 January, while taking the following factors into consideration: (i) value of annual inflation for previous calendar year on the territory of Buyer's state or European Union (the highest level of inflation shall be used), (ii) changes of energy prices on world markets, (iii) changes of entry materials on world markets, (iv) changes in law which cause increase of the costs and prices, for example tax regulations, working regulations, regulation for social provision and alike, (v) well documented and convincing possibility to reach better prices from Supplier's competition, whereas such competitive prices shall not be in defiance of any legal regulations and shall not be lower than production costs of such competitor (predator valuation).

- 5.7 Modifications according to the clause 5.6 shall be done during first six (6) months of a respective year and shall be valid as at 1 January of such year. Contracting parties shall, in compliance with the modifications, issue and supply the respective credit notes or debit notes without unreasonable delay after modification of Prices and send them to the other Contracting party.

- 5.8 Supplier shall be entitled to demand from Buyer opening some negotiations on modification of Prices, apart from paragraph 5.6, in case that price of entry materials on world markets changes by more than 5%. Supplier shall be obliged to credibly prove this change to Buyer.

- 5.9 Supplier shall be obliged to secure and prove to Buyer the credit limit of financial coverage of supplies in the amount that enables continuous ordering and supplies while observing the agreed maturity.

- 5.10 Buyer shall not be obliged to settle advance payments or proforma invoices to Supplier, unless explicitly agreed by both Contracting parties. Buyer shall essentially provide the advance payment to Supplier only against a bank guarantee that secures due and timely supply of Goods, whereas the advance payment may be provided only with the aim of investment purchase exceeding EUR 200,000.

- 5.11 Buyer shall be entitled to retain the payment of Price if Supplier does not deliver the Goods fully, duly or timely, or delivers the Goods with any shortcomings; up to full and due supply of Goods without any shortcomings. Buyer shall announce such retaining of the payment to Supplier, whereas announcement by electronic post or fax is sufficient. Period of Price maturity shall automatically be prolonged by the period of retaining the payment of Price as per this provision.

- 5.12 As per Section 525 Sub-section 2 OZ, Supplier shall not be entitled to assign any receivables under Contract, GPC or a legal relationship under the Contract and/or GPC, or from any relationship directly or indirectly connected with the Contract and/or GPC which he has towards Buyer to any third parties.

- 5.13 Supplier shall not be entitled to unilaterally tally up any receivables, which he has towards Buyer with Buyer's liabilities, which he has towards Supplier.

- 5.14 Supplier shall be obliged to participate in mutual agreement of receivables and liabilities between Contracting parties.

- 5.15 Supplier shall not be entitled to pledge any receivable against the Buyer from the Contract, GPC or from legal relationship governed by the Contract and/or GPC or from any relationship directly or indirectly connected with the Contract and/or GPC or to establish any right to such receivable in the favour of any third person.

- 5.16 Irrespective from the other provisions of these GPC (especially irrespective from its clause 5.4 hereabove) and irrespective from any provision of the Contract the following shall apply in case when any of the state/governmental authority, due to the need of elimination of risk of spread of infectious diseases or due to the need of aversion of negative unpredictable events, issues any decision or ruling stipulating any limitations or force that might have negative adverse effect on operation of the Buyers business (such as any measure that might impact the circulation of goods, free movement of persons, performance of works by the Buyer or its suppliers); the maturity period shall be automatically prolonged so that the invoices of the Supplier become mature on the first day of the month following the term stipulated in clause 5.4 hereabove.

6 Removal of Shortcomings on Goods and Guarantee Conditions

- 6.1 Taking over the Goods with shortcomings shall not prevent Supplier from his obligation to remove the shortcomings at his costs. Buyer shall inform the Supplier about the shortcomings found out on Goods within the period of thirty (30) days after their detection, whereas announcement as per this clause may be carried out also by electronic post or fax.

- 6.2 Guarantee period for Goods shall be twenty-four (24) months from due and full supply of Goods without any shortcomings, unless agreed by Contracting parties upon a shorter or longer guarantee period. If the Goods are spare parts for products which are not produced in bulk any more, the guarantee period shall be prolonged by a planned period of these products' storage determined by their producer (mostly in case of motor vehicles).

- 6.3 Contract shall be materially breached upon supply of Goods with shortcomings and/or supply of Goods which is not due or full. Buyer shall be entitled to do the following from the Supplier (i) demand removal of shortcomings by supply of supplementary Goods for faulty Goods, supply of missing Goods and require removal of legal faults, or (ii) demand removal of shortcomings by repair of Goods if it is possible to repair the shortcomings, (iii) return the Goods or their part to Supplier, whereas Supplier shall bear return costs and risk of damage, or (iv) demand appropriate Price discount, or (v) terminate the Contract or respective Order. Supplier shall be obliged to suffer the removal of shortcomings and performance of related works on his expense by means of a third person determined by Buyer or Buyer's customer.

6.4 Buyer shall not have any entitlements from guarantee if the shortcomings arise as a result of Goods usage in defiance of operating manuals, maintenance or installation manuals provided by Supplier to Buyer or after natural wear and tear. Buyer shall also not have any entitlements from guarantee if the shortcomings arise as a result of inappropriate Buyer's instructions, Technical background documents or Instruments, and Supplier has informed the Buyer in writing in advance, prior to commencement of Goods production of usage of these instructions, Technical background documents or Instructions, about their inappropriateness and Buyer insisted on their usage in spite of such written notification.

6.5 Application of guarantee claims, removal of shortcomings on the Goods and performance of related works (classification, scrapping, repairs, processing of Goods, returning the Goods, and others) is always at costs and risk of Supplier.

6.6 Supplier shall solve the claim, including a credit advice issuance or other background documents for quality management systems, within the course of five (5) working days. If Supplier does not send the credit advice in appropriate period, Buyer shall settle the difference by a correction voucher issued on his behalf or on behalf and to the account of Supplier. Settlement as per this paragraph shall not prevent Supplier from damage liability and costs connected with removal of shortcomings on the Goods.

6.7 Supplier shall be obliged to issue a written statement of guarantee for Buyer, which includes at least guarantee conditions above and does not reduce the guarantee conditions above in any way. Not issuing the guarantee statement which is in defiance of Contract and GPC shall not affect the guarantee conditions set forth in these GPC.

7 Technical background documents and Instruments

7.1 Technical background documents shall remain property of Buyer, and the Seller is entitled to use them exclusively to produce and supply the Goods for Buyer. Supplier shall return these Technical background documents to Buyer without any delay after Contract termination. Supplier shall not be entitled to leave or transfer any rights to Technical background documents on any third person in any way.

7.2 Supplier shall be obliged to produce the Goods solely by means of Instruments, if provided by Buyer or if produced on the basis of Technical background documents. Supplier shall not be entitled to use Instruments to produce the Goods or provide any kind of services for any third person without prior written consent of Buyer.

7.3 If the Instruments are made at Buyer's costs, Buyer shall be owner of the Instruments.

7.4 Supplier shall not be entitled to leave or transfer any rights to Instruments or to establish a lien on Instruments or any rights in favour of any third persons, including collateral rights, otherwise Supplier is liable to Buyer for any damage incurred to Buyer as direct or indirect breach of this ban.

7.5 If the Instruments are produced at Supplier's costs, Buyer shall have a pre-emptive rights to these Instruments, whereas purchase price for the Instruments shall not be higher than the costs of their production. Supplier shall not be entitled to leave or transfer any rights to these Instruments or to establish a lien on Instruments or any rights in favour of any third persons, including collateral rights, without prior written consent of Buyer, otherwise Supplier is liable to Buyer for any damage incurred to Buyer as a result of this ban.

7.6 Supplier shall be obliged to visibly mark the Instruments that belong to Buyer and Technical background documents as Buyer's property, stating the business name and registered office of Buyer, with clear statement that it is Buyer's property.

7.7 Upon Buyer's request, Supplier shall be obliged to enable Buyer to check the Technical background documents and Instruments. Such inspection may be carried out only in working days from 08:00 to 16:00hrs. Supplier shall be obliged to inform the Buyer in writing about every new place of Technical background documents and Instruments in other Supplier's plant and every change of rights to Instruments, including establishment of lien and other rights in favour of any third persons or their retaining.

7.8 Supplier shall do maintenance and repairs of the Instruments at own costs.

8 Intellectual and Industrial Property Rights

8.1 Upon provision of Technical background documents and Instruments, Buyer shall provide Supplier with an unlimited and non-exclusive licence to use the intellectual and industrial property rights, which are connected with these Technical background documents and Instruments. Usage of such licence is limited solely to production of the Goods for Buyer. The licence shall be valid during the Contract period and shall lapse upon termination of Contract. Supplier shall not be entitled to use such intellectual and industrial property rights for other purpose than production of Goods for Buyer.

8.2 Supplier shall be liable for any breach of intellectual and industrial property rights of third persons, which incur in connection with production of the Goods or in relation with the Contract. Supplier shall be liable for the fact that the Goods supplied do not breach any intellectual and industrial property rights of third persons, not as a whole or any part thereof. Supplier shall not be liable for such rights only in case that these rights are breached by Buyer upon provision of Technical background documents and Instruments and Supplier could not have known about such breach, not even when taking expert care.

8.3 Supplier shall be obliged to inform the Buyer in writing about all own intellectual and industrial property rights and all intellectual and industrial property rights of third persons for which the Supplier is entitled to grant licences, and which he used for Goods production. Used licences and sub-licences shall enable export of the Goods to all countries to which Buyer supplies the Goods or products for whose production the Goods are used. Supplier hereby relieves Buyer and Buyer's customers from any entitlements for usage of such intellectual and industrial property rights.

8.4 Contracting parties shall be obliged to inform each other without any delay about any claims by third parties relating to intellectual and industrial property rights and cooperate on solving the arisen situation.

8.5 Supplier shall not be entitled to register any intellectual and industrial property right which belongs to Buyer, including the rights that have occurred in connection with Buyer's development Order or within consultations with experts, cooperating persons or employees of Buyer. In case that Supplier acquires such rights in defiance of the previous clause, he shall be obliged to transfer them to Buyer without any delay.

9 Confidentiality and Protection of Confidential Information

9.1 The whole content of the Contract shall be confidential. Contracting parties shall be obliged to be unconditionally confidential about the Confidential information.

9.2 Obligation to be unconditionally confidential about the Confidential information shall relate to any third person.

9.3 Provision of Confidential information to public authority bodies as per respective legal regulations shall not be deemed as breach of obligation to be confidential about the Confidential information, providing that Confidential information is given to public authority bodies in compliance with legal regulations. Contracting party that provides Confidential information to a public authority body shall be obliged to inform the other Contracting party in writing, without any unreasonable delay, and cooperate at provision of further protection of confidentiality of such Confidential information.

9.4 If Contracting parties conclude a special agreement whose subject matter is protection of Confidential information, such agreement shall prevail over provisions of this article of GPC, if such agreement secures wider scale of protection for Confidential information.
